Conference - rnd2024.org

- RADMA: R&D Management
 - The primary research conference on Innovation Management in Europe
- This year's theme
 - Transforming Industries Through Technology
- Conference program (June 17-19)
 - Keynotes from industry and academia
 - 58 paper presentation tracks
 - 5 workshops
 - 1 Meet the editors session
 - Visits to the entrepreneurial ecosystem of KTH
- Doctoral Colloquium (June 15-16)
 - Max 40 PhD students (free of charge)

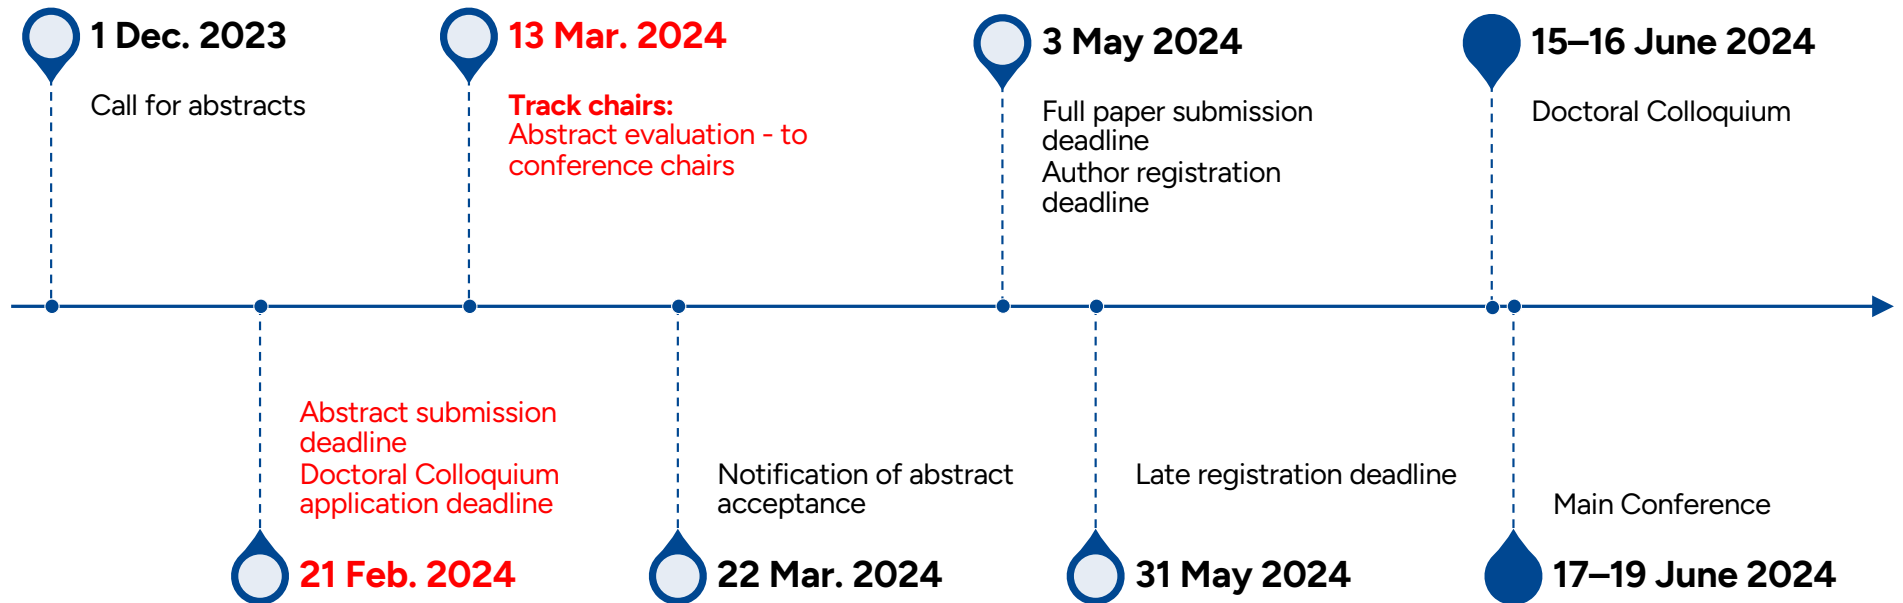

Abstract submissions - outcome

- 770 abstracts submitted!
 - Thank you for all your efforts to promote your track and the conference as a whole!!!
- This allows us to be selective and accept only papers of good quality.
- Even more important to stress that we (Mats & Mats) make the final decisions as there are logistical constraints (we are looking into those at the moment).
- Between 0 and 50 abstracts received per track.
 - Maximum: 36 presentation within one track
- In the next few days:
 - Some abstracts may be moved from "General submission" to specific tracks.
 - Some small tracks might be merged with others

Important dates

Abstract handling

- Track chairs organize the review process of their track submissions:
 - Each abstract should be reviewed by at least two reviewers
 - Track chair organizers can perform reviews (but not on their own papers)
 - Important to keep deadline (March 13) as the timeline is tight
- Decision about acceptance/reject is made by the organizers (Mats & Mats)
- Instructions and access to the abstract handling system
 - Sara Ahlm, Project manager Invajo AB

Access to abstract submission system

- You will receive an e-mail with the following content:

Dear Track chair,

Below are the details of your review account for R&D Management 2024 Abstracts.

Username: Your e-mail address

Password: Create a password by visiting this link

If you've already created your password you can log in to the system here.

Once logged in you can follow the below process:

You will find all assigned abstracts in the list on the Review page.

Click an abstract title in the list and the full abstract text will be loaded on the right.

Read the abstract and then complete the Review section below the text and click Save review.

If you have any conflict of interest with the current abstract then you click the "Conflict of interest" button instead of completing the Review section.

Repeat the steps above for each abstract.

If you'd like to invite additional reviewers for your track, please send us an email at abstracts+rnd2024abstracts@invajo.com with the names and email addresses of the individuals you'd like to add. We'll handle the rest and send them invitations accordingly.

For any other questions about your login or the reviewing system, feel free to reach out to us at the same email address mentioned above.

Regards,
Support for R&D Management 2024 Abstracts
